4. SCOPE OF WORK

4.1 LOCATION

Operational area of the GMC's ML property is located 177 km. east of Skardu in Ganche Dist. which can be approached through a 65 km fair weather blacktop road from Khaplu (District Headquarters of Ganche) up to a small village Palit (Lat. 35.136°N, Long.76.794°E) at an elevation of 3176 meters from where the Property Area could be approached southwardly through a 3-7km foot trail (Annex-I)

4.2 ACCESSIBILITY

Gilgit-Baltistan Province, situated to the extreme north of Pakistan spreads over an area of 72,971 Sq.km, is governed from Gilgit and Skardu Cities as its Divisional Headquarters. Both these Cities are very well connected to Islamabad through subject to weather Pakistan International Air Lines daily routine air flights and black top all weather roads at distances of 597 and 715 kilometers respectively from Islamabad, the capital Metropolis of Pakistan. (Annex-II)

4.3 LEASE STATUS

Global Mining Company's Ranthak Gold property is a 10 Sq. km area granted to it by the relevant Licensing Authority as Mining Lease for the development and extraction of gold in accordance with the Govt. of Gilgit-Baltistan Mining Concession Rules 2016 for a period of 30 years (Annex-III).

4.4 CLIMATE

The property is situated in a region of very cold winters and pleasant summers. Due to moderate rate of precipitation, the area falls in semi-arid zones with temperature ranging from -20°C in winter to 30°C in summer.

4.5 TOPOGRAPHY & RELIEF

Extensive glaciation in the area has resulted formation of widespread morains, glacio-fluvial deposits and glacio-erosional features. Steep and unstable valley sides in the property area, including bedrock and glacial deposits provide volumes of debris which are reworked by the main streams to form several alluvial fans in this narrow sub-valley of Saltoro River.

4.6 REGIONAL GEOLOGICAL SET UP

Many rock units of the 3 major blocks, i.e. from south to north, the Laddakh Island Arc, Karakoram Thrust zone and the Karakoram blocks are exposed in the region (Annex-IV)

The Laddakh Island arc in the region apart from hosting multi-episodic rock units of the Kohistan batholith is also a multiplex for presenting other variety of rocks such as mica schist, gneissic schist, amphibole mica schist, migmatized gneisses, garnet mica gneisses duly introduced by granitoid aplites and pegmatites. Another conspicuous rock suit exposed in the area is composed of basalt andesite and andesite. These volcanics mostly metamorphosed to green-schist and amphibolite schist facies, are commonly massive in the central part while found foliated along the Shyoke Suture/Main Karakoram thrust (SSZ/MKT) zone.

The Karakoram Thrust Zone (MKT) also called as the Shyoke Suture Zone is the second most important tectonic block observable in the Siachin Mountains in the east while passes through the Northern tip of the Property for a linear distance of about 150 kilometers to the west. This architectural geological element of the Gilgit-Baltistan region, varying in thickness from 500meters to about 7 kilometers shows its existence through exposures of basal green-schist facies mafic volcanic rocks with intercalated lime stones and mudstones; coarse conglomerates & intercalated sandstones and ophiolitic mélange rocks. Each of the 3 afore mentioned rock unit packages are separated by thrust faults

4.7 ROCK UNITS EXPOSED WITHIN THE PROPERTY AREA

The MKT zone having a thickness up to 600 meters is crossing the Property in east-west direction and contain phyllite, talc schist, agglomerate, serpentinite, talc-carbonate schists, chlorite schist and pyroxenite as its constituent lithological members (Annex-V). The second lithological unit where gold bearing oxidized bodies are found are the volcanic rocks along the southern contact of the MKT zone which consist of basaltic andesite and andesite, mostly massive towards its central part and foliated along the Thrust. They are commonly found metamorphosed to green schist facies. Application of the image spectroscopy and multispectral (LANDSAT, ASTER and Geo-eye) remote sensing techniques in the area have also indicated 5 to 10 meters wide mineral alteration zones. These alteration zones are associated with sulphide mineralization in quartz veins in volcanic, metavolcanic and dioritic rocks. Dominant minerals in the alteration zone include malachite, azurite, pyrite and chalcopyrite.

4.8 GOLD IN THE SOURCE ROCKS

Some 10 zones, containing gold mineralization in the property area have so far been discovered (Annex-VI). Amongst these 9 nos. of rock chip samples taken from only one zone, i.e. Zone-1 contain gold values between 0.6 to 24 gm/ton. In addition, a 90Kg crushed, ground and hand panned bulk sample has yielded 2.2 g/t free gold after applying primitive hand panning techniques.

4.9 MATERIAL WORK REQUIREMENT OF GMC

Requisit work that shall be obligatory on part of a Consultant to be accomplished under a contract agreement and presented to GMC through prevailing international standards for such types of assignments is detailed as under:

- 4.9.1 Field demarcation of the already reported 10 Nos. gold bearing zones (attached as Annex-VI) in the GMC's ML area on 1:5,000 scale (enlarged relevant portion from Survey of Pakistan topo-sheet No 52/A/12 shall be provided by GMC).
- 4.9.2 Using the prepared map by the Consultants as mentioned vide para 4.9.1 above, a basic tool for physically identifying and digitally demarcating each zone on Google earth image for planning excavation of at least 10 trenches appropriate to the mineralized gold bearing zones.
- 4.9.3 Excavating at least total of 10 nos. of deep trenches in the first 3 to 4 order of priority gold bearing zones. The numbers and dimensions of trenches in each zone shall be decided appropriate to the respective zone. Each trench shall be excavated up to the exposure of fresh bed rock and across the width of the zone as per SOP at Annex-VII. Location of trenches will however be decided by the PG, GMC after submission of the assignment at Sr. No. 4.9.1 & 4.9.2. above by the consultants.
- 4.9.4 Sampling & logging of the trenches on 1:250 scale (1 cm=2.5 meters) as per SOP attached with this document as Annex-VII).
- 4.9.5 Dispatch of Trench samples to GMC Head Office as per SOP (Annex-VII) attached with this document'
- 4.9.6 Collection of a representative bulk composite sample not less than 25 kg each from the main 3 zones and their transportation thereof to GMC Head Office, Islamabad
- 4.9.7 Submission of final report by the consultants showing inter alia the exposed rock units and their geological sequence in the GMC's Ranthak ML Property on 1:10,000 topographic map having 5 meters contour interval, description of all samples on GMC's provided format, complete logs of each trench on 1:250 (1cm=2.5 meters) scale showing mineralized zones, respective sample identification number, geological details of each sample and based on field data thus generated a rough estimate of the resource availability
- 4.9.8 Field work must be concluded by the 3rd week of September 2024.

4.10 PROVISION OF MACHINERY/ EQUIPMENT

The consultant shall procure, install, operate and maintain the necessary camping& geological equipment, machinery / equipment/vehicles, logistic support, stationery and other consumables items necessary for the smooth operation etc. during the Contract period at his own risk and cost to complete the assigned work up to the entire satisfaction of GMC.

4.11 WATER SOURCE

Water flow continues in the Ranthak Stream up to the end of September in the upper reaches.

5.7 SOP FOR TAKING A CONTINUOUS CHIP CHANNEL SAMPLE FROM A TRENCH (Annex-VII)

Annex-VII

SOP for taking a continuous chip Channel sample from a trench.

Trenches to be excavated in the Project area shall be in a style to firstly remove the overburdened scree, alluvium, colluvium or any other transported material covering the sample site with the help of laborers using claws, shovels or other manual tools. Trench shall be excavated across the strike line of the rock formation for sampling purposes. The trenching work should be started with removing the overburden and after exposing the outcrop, its further deep cutting through controlled blasting of the rocks by making drill holes with the help of a rock drill machine. When the portion of the outcrop specifically the mineralized zone is completely exposed along its width, the fresh rocks along the entire length of the trench would in fact be the thickness/width of the mineralized zone.

Next stage shall be to demarcate the subzones of the mineralized zone which only and only a GEOLOGIST will do by measuring with tape the subzones, preparing a geological log on 1:250 i.e. 1cm=2 meters scale using a graph paper for the purpose and pre-plane nos. of samples to be taken. Synthetic enameled paint (red or white) shall be used for the marking purpose followed by taking regular chip channel samples of the sub zones at floor or wall level. The samples collected shall be allotted proper unique numbers in accordance with the instruction of the PG GMC.

All the trench samples to be taken at Ranthak shall be continuous chip channel samples consisting of small chips of a particular sub zone also indicating length of the channel of the sub zone in decimal system of measurement. Sturdy cloth sample bags duly approved by the PG GMC shall be used. No drawstring (Narah or aazar band) system in the sample bag rather any sample bag for the sampling purpose shall have a stitched piece of string outside and near the mouth of sample bag for tightening the sample bag after its filling.

While taking a sample, 80% of the sample bag shall be filled. A flag tape and paint marker shall be used for putting the relevant sample number inside the sample bag. Relevant sample # shall also be written on both side of the sample bag with a paint marker of contrast color.

Walls of the trench or for that matter even floor of the trench in whatever case the samples are decided to be taken, must be cleaned before from the dust created during the excavation work by the laborers or by the blasting process.
